Report one day camp the occasion of 'World Environment Day' (June 5, 2024) conducted at GIHS Mahavisyalaya, Lucknow.

Name of the Programme Officer: Sumit Kumar Misra

A tree plantation drive was organized on the occasion of 'World Environment Day' (June 5, 2024) at Goel Institute of Higher Studies Mahavidyalaya with the aim of promoting environmental awareness and contributing to a greener future. Dr. Santosh Pandey, Principal of GIHSM planted a tree in the event along with students enthusiastically.

A variety of native trees were carefully selected for planting. Participants were provided guidance by the gardener about proper tree planting techniques, including digging appropriate pits, watering. The event also included an awareness campaign on the importance of trees, their environmental benefits, and the need for their conservation. Informative banners and posters were displayed, and short speeches were delivered to educate participants about the significance of tree plantation.

The tree plantation drive was a resounding success. It not only contributed to environmental restoration but also instilled a sense of environmental responsibility among the students.

Report on "Road Safety Awareness Rally", conducted by Goel Institute of Higher Studies Mahavidyalaya, Lucknow on 2 February 2024.

Name of the Programme Officer (NSS):- Mr. Sumit Mishra

A number of accidents taking place each day because of irresponsible driving. Just for saving a little amount of time we don't even care for our valuable lives. Also, we are prepared to place the life of others in danger too!! Such irresponsible behavior needs to be changed. Traffic Rules teach us to become good and accountable citizens of the motherland.

There is a popular saying "Slow and steady wins the race." Thus, drive cautiously and reach your destination safely. Only when you will reach safe, you can win time for your family and for the service of the nation at large!!

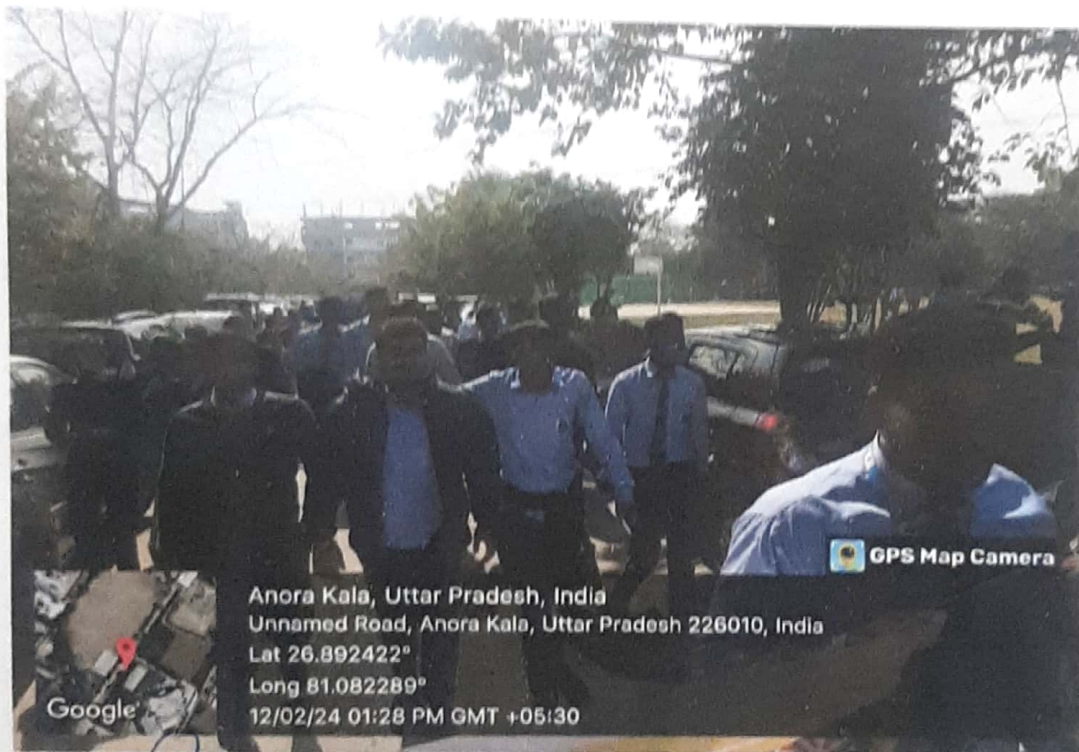

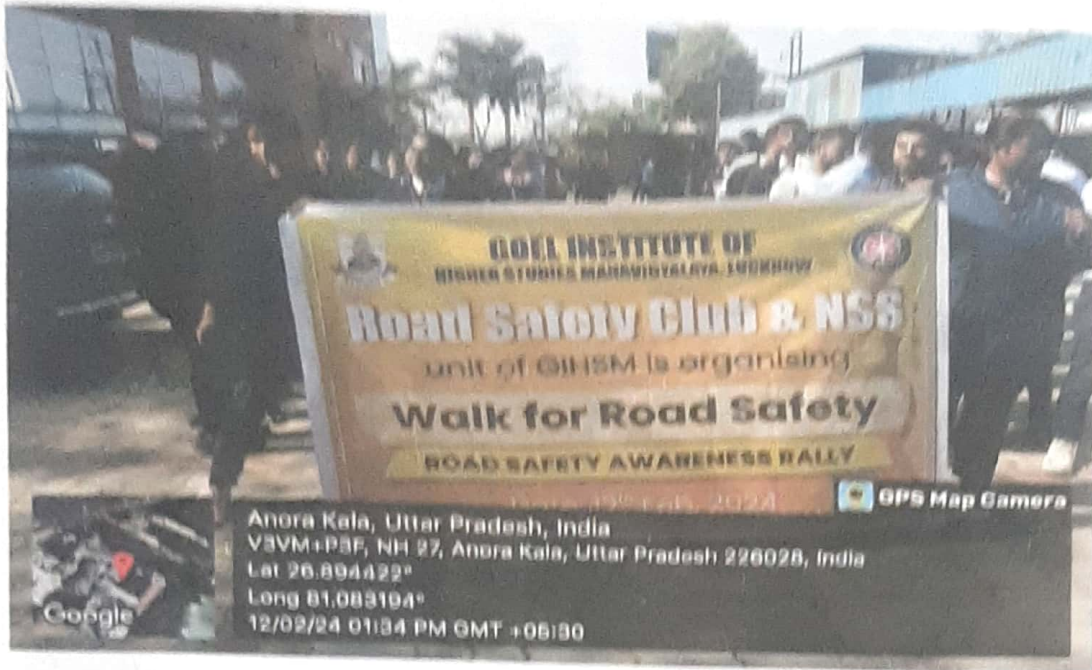

Goel Institute of Higher Studies Mahavidyalaya organized an awareness rally on "Road Safety" in which 145 students and 7 teachers participated. The rally started from the campus and went to the village 'Anaura Kala' through Ayodhya Road. The students recited slogans as "Helmet Lagayenge, Sar ko bachayenge", "Sadak Suraksha Jeevan Raksha". The students spread awareness about the traffic rules during the rally.

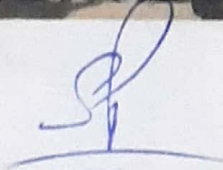

It was a successful event. The event was completed under the leadership of Mr. Sumit Mishra (Programme officer, NSS) and Ms Jayantika Yadav (Member, NSS).

VOTERS' DAY

Date : 25/01/2024

Report of one day camp on the occasion of 'Voters' Day' (25th January, 2024) conducted at Goel Institute of Higher Studies Mahavidyalaya, Lucknow.

Name of the Programme Officer – Mr. Sumit Kumar Misra

On the occasion of National Voters' Day, a vibrant one-day camp was organized in collaboration with Electoral Literacy Club at Goel Institute of Higher Studies Mahavidyalaya, Lucknow, under the enthusiastic guidance of Dr. Santosh Pandey (Principal). The event was jointly conducted by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit and the Electoral Literacy Club, highlighting the importance of voting as a fundamental democratic right and responsibility.

As a precursor to this grand celebration, a Slogan Writing Competition was held on 25th January, 2024, where 56 enthusiastic students showcased their creativity and passion. Participants crafted impactful slogans with beautiful calligraphy, inspiring voters with their messages. Their thoughtful and artistic creations emphasized the significance of active participation in the electoral process and motivated citizens to exercise their voting rights responsibly.

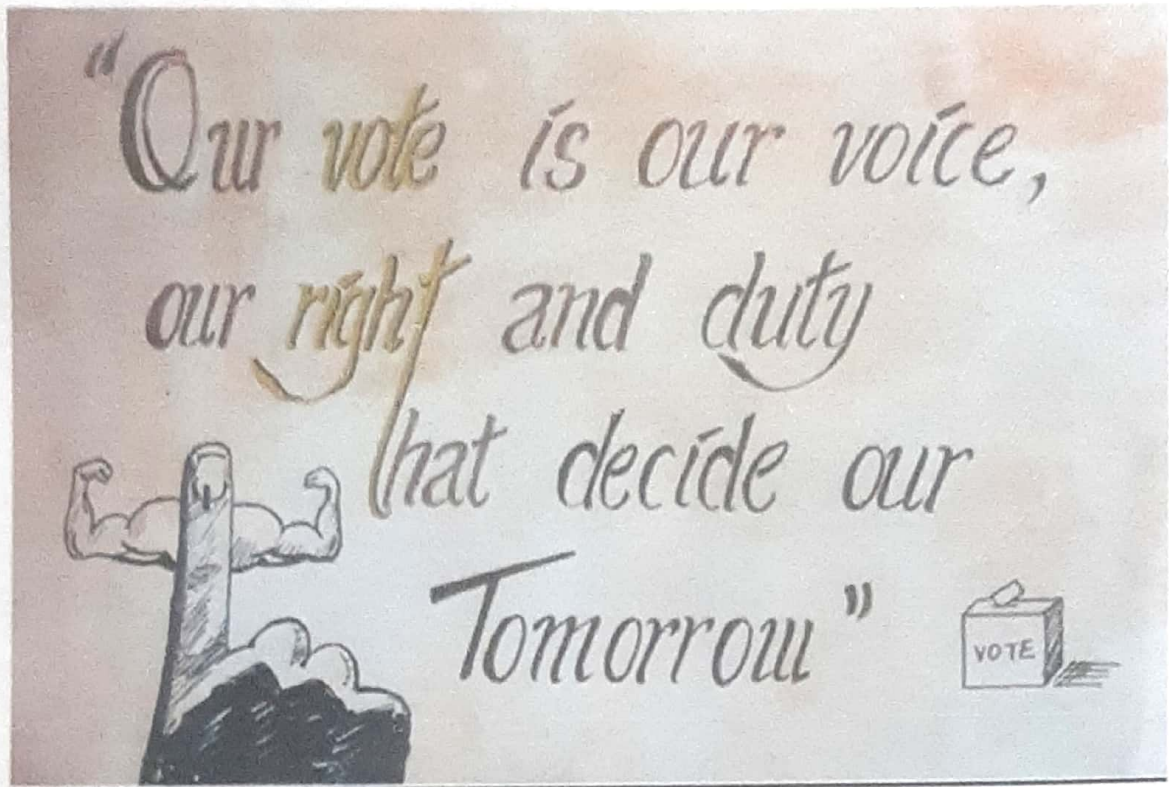

The competition served as a powerful medium to instill awareness about electoral rights and duties while promoting the essence of unity and equality in a diverse society. The students' work was not only a testament to their artistic talent but also a reflection of their commitment to creating a more informed and inclusive voter community.

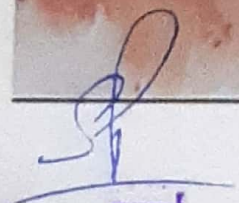

The event successfully underscored the pivotal role of young citizens in strengthening democracy. Through their participation, the students delivered a resonant message about the importance of knowing one's rights, standing for equality, and fostering societal harmony.

This initiative by the NSS Unit and the Electoral Literacy Club marked a significant step towards building a responsible and informed electorate, making the Voters' Day celebration a memorable and impactful event.

Report of one day camp on the occasion of 'World AIDS Day' Awareness Programme (December 1, 2023) conducted at Goel Institute of Higher Studies Mahavidyalaya, Lucknow.

Name of the Programme Officer – Mr. Sumit Kumar Misra

The one day camp was organised on the occasion of 'World AIDS at Goel Institute of Higher Studies Mahavidyalaya on December 1, 2023 to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS. The event aimed to educate the people about HIV transmission, prevention, treatment, and the importance of reducing stigma and discrimination associated with the disease.

Students made very effective posters covering various issues such as:

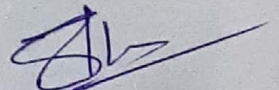

- Modes of HIV transmission
- Treatment options and advancements
- Importance of early diagnosis and treatment adherence
- Addressing stigma and discrimination

This event created awareness about HIV/AIDS among the students and also the faculty and other staff members of the institution. Participants were empowered with knowledge about HIV prevention and encouraged to make informed decisions about their sexual health.

The World AIDS Day observance was a successful event that effectively raised awareness about HIV/AIDS and promoted a better understanding of the disease. It emphasized the importance of continued efforts in prevention, treatment, and reducing stigma to combat the HIV epidemic through the posters prepared by the students. At the end of the programme the students were encouraged by Dr. Santosh Pandey (Principal) to participate in such awareness programmes.
